- (a) adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Area and Lots facilities, and the personal conduct of the members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof;
- (b) suspend the voting rights and right to use of the recreational facilities of a member during any period in which such member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed 60 days for infraction of published rules and regulations;

(f) adopt and publish architectural guidelines; and

(g) to levy a fine or fines against any Member or Member's tenants, guests or invitees for failure to comply with any provision of the Governing Documents including, but not limited to, the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, or any Rules or Regulations or architectural guidelines (hereinafter "violation"); provided that the procedural and due process requirements required by Florida law, (e.g. Section 720.305, Florida Statutes), as amended from time to time, are followed. Fines imposed hereunder shall be deemed an indebtedness due the Association from the person against whom it is imposed, and shall bear interest at the highest lawful rate until paid. The Association may collect said fine(s) using any method permitted by law or in equity. The Committee shall have the right to levy a fine in excess of $1,000.00, and the Association may file a lien for any fine in the amount of $1,000.00 or higher. Should it be necessary for the Association to employ an attorney to collect such fine, in addition to interest, the Association shall be entitled to recover the costs and expenses thereof, together with reasonable attorneys' fees. All monies received from fines shall be allocated as directed by the Board of Directors. The Board reserves the right to prepare a schedule of fines for particular violations.

Article XI, ASSESSMENTS, is hereby amended as follows:

As more fully provided in the Declaration, each member is obligated to pay to the Association annual and special assessments which are secured by a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of eighteen (18%) 10 percent per annum and a late fee shall be charged, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property, and interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. Late fees, as set forth herein, shall be charged in an amount permitted by Section 720.3085(3)(a), Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time. For any assessment not paid when due, there shall be added to the amount of such assessment the aforesaid interest, late charges and costs of collection, including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and costs upon appeal, in bankruptcy and with regard to any other actions relating to creditors rights), and the said costs of collection shall be recoverable
